MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: [REDACTED]
Director, Intelligence Community Staff

25X1

SUBJECT: DCI Orientation of Military Installations and Personnel [REDACTED]

25X1

1. I noted the DCI met with the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff last week. This, coupled with the DCI's visit to the U.S. Space Command on 16 July, is an excellent beginning to an understanding of the military side of the intelligence effort--support to the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) and the Unified and Specified Commanders. I have taken the liberty to assemble a list of places to see and people to meet that I feel are a priority as Judge Webster gets comfortable with his role as the Director of the Intelligence Community. [REDACTED]

2. The list that follows is geographically arranged and prioritized within each region. As the DCI travels, I hope he will use any available time to visit one or two of the facilities or people in the area. I stand ready to assist and/or accompany the DCI if he so desires. [REDACTED]

o In the greater Washington D.C./Virginia area, I recommend:

-- The Secretaries and Chiefs of each of the Services if he doesn't meet them in the normal course of business. (The DCI has already visited with the Secretary of the Air Force.) [REDACTED]

25X1

-- Also, I suggest visiting with Admiral Baggett, Commander of Atlantic Command and the intelligence facilities [REDACTED]

25X1

-- A dock-side tour of an aircraft carrier and discussions of national intelligence support to naval operations would be useful too. [REDACTED]

-- The Army's Foreign Intelligence Scientific and Technical Center in Charlottesville, Virginia. [REDACTED]
